Physical Ed.	Students must enroll in Physical Ed. at least one semester each academic year.

GRADING

Grading is done on a typical 4-point scale with no weighted grades (A=4.0, B=3.0, C=2.0, etc.). Cumulative GPA and class rank are updated at the end of each semester.

ACCELERATED PROGRAMS

Students may choose from regular, advanced, and honors courses. In general, honors classes will prepare students to take optional Advanced Placement exams that are made available each spring. Students with appropriate course background and qualifying test scores may take college credit classes at nearby colleges such as Kirkwood Community College, the University of Iowa, Coe College, and Cornell College. College-credit classes allow Mount Vernon students to earn both high school and college credits.

GRADUATE TRENDS

Approximately 55-65% of recent graduates have attended a 4-year college immediately following graduation
Approximately 20-30% of recent graduates have attended a 2-year community college/specialized school immediately following graduation.
